

For Gladys and Irving Wolfe

O PRAISE THE LORD, WHO MADE ALL BEAUTY

(unison voices)

Words based on A French CarolMusic by Hal H. Hopson

Moving gently , with simplicity (♩ = 120)

Unison Voices mp

O praise the

Piano, Organ or Harpichord mp

Lord _____ who made all beau - ty. Whose gift of the sens-es we en - joy. O may we live each day _____

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It features a unison voice line and a piano accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Moving gently, with simplicity' with a quarter note equal to 120 beats per minute. The dynamics are marked 'mp' (mezzo-piano). The lyrics are: 'O praise the Lord _____ who made all beau - ty. Whose gift of the sens-es we en - joy. O may we live each day _____'. The piano accompaniment consists of a treble and bass clef part, with various articulations like slurs and accents.

— in con - stant won - der, To see all of life in sim-ple pleas - ure. O praise the Lord _____ who made all beau - ty. Sing, "Lau-de, lau - de - a - mus te."

With more motion and vigor

f

Praise Him who makes each day an ad - ven - ture. _____

Praise Him for ea-ger eyes to see the world. _____

Praise Him for bud-ding flow-er. Praise Him for stars and moon-beam. Sing,

rit. _____

"Lau - de - a - mus, Lau - de - a - mus, Lau - de, Lau - de - a - mus."

rit. _____

a tempo

Praise Him for sound of voice and_

a tempo

mu - sic._____

Praise Him for touch that loved ones_

share._____

Praise Him for fra - grant spring-time.

Praise Him for win-ter's bleak-ness. Sing, "Lau - de - a - mus, Lau - de - a - mus,