FROM THE EDITOR

I always thought I would be a high school band director. It's what I dreamed of becoming ever since picking up a French horn in 5th grade and joining the band program. In high school, expecting to pursue music education, my teachers let me take independent study classes—diving into theory workbooks, accompanying middle school choirs, or experimenting with other instruments in the band room.

I followed that path to Wartburg College and jumped in fully. I played French horn in Wind Ensemble, accompanied the Ritterchor (men's choir), and played keys in the Knightlites Jazz Band. My most vivid musical memory came my senior year, just before the Christmas with Wartburg tour. At our final dress rehearsal, I was assigned to lead the devotional. I asked the tech to dim the auditorium lights. The warm-up noise faded.

"A light shines in the darkness," I said, lighting a candle. Its small flame filled the vast space with warmth. We reflected on how something so small can illuminate even the farthest corners. We thought about our busy lives—finals, travel plans, decisions about jobs and student teaching—and then returned our focus to the candle. I felt an overwhelming sense of presence, surrounded by friends who had become family, about to create something beautiful together.

"The music we're about to create," I continued, "is a light in the darkness. It will help someone find their way, offer comfort to the hurting, and bring community to those who feel alone. We light the candle, and the light will find its way to the corners."

Music helps us make sense of a heavy, busy world. Whether it's a song that reveals where we see God at work, reminds us of God's protection, or reflects on that awe-filled night in Bethlehem, the new fall releases in the Choristers Guild catalog are candles to guide our communities through the seasons ahead.

*God is our strength and our song.
Not one sparrow is forgotten.
God calls us all.*

*I see God!
Picture it, a lovely night.
Will you light a candle?*

I can't wait to hear how these candles burn brightly with your choirs, filling the world with hope, peace, joy, and love.

She conducts Rise Up Ignite and serves as assistant director and accompanist for the advanced mixed choir. She also teaches music and directs the 5th & 6th grade choirs at Wasatch Charter School in Holladay, Utah.

GENERAL ANTHEMS

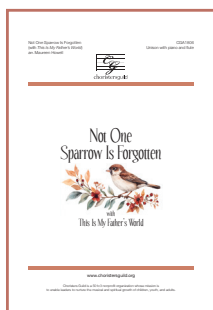

GOD CALLS US ALL

Mark Burrows

What does it mean to be called by God? Mark Burrows incorporates the stories of Jeremiah, Mary, and Martha to demonstrate that God calls us all—just as we are. This empowering song for unison/two-part voices includes optional solos and a call-and-response refrain to build confidence in developing young singers. Suggested for: General, Vocation

NOT ONE SPARROW IS FORGOTTEN (with This Is My Father's World)

arr. Maureen Howell

The assuring text of this Shaker hymn is beautifully set by Maureen Howell, allowing treble voices the opportunity to shine! Young choirs can utilize the optional shorter phrasing, while experienced voices can develop longer musical ideas. Featuring a lyrical flute part which weaves in the TERRA BEATA tune throughout, this inspiring anthem can be programmed at any time of year: harvest, Thanksgiving, spring, Earth Day, or blessing; and it can be used to complement worship themes of trust, guidance, God's care, creation care, and more.

WITH WHAT SHALL I COME BEFORE THE LORD?

Matthew J. Armstrong

“What does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?” This anthem opens with the two verses preceding Micah 6:8, where Micah questions what he should bring before the Lord, a passage written to challenge corrupt leaders. Lush, heartfelt writing draws us into the message, inspiring justice through kindness and humility.

GOD IS OUR STRENGTH AND OUR SONG

Becki Slagle Mayo

Becki Slagle Mayo's energetic intergenerational anthem for combined choirs is a celebratory selection for church festivals throughout the year. A great choice for Rally Sunday, Reformation, Christ the King, Thanksgiving, Transfiguration, Palm Sunday, and Eastertide. A dynamic piano accompaniment supports mixed and treble choirs as they join forces to share a message of God's ever-present love and grace. If no treble choir is available, upper voices can cover their part.

CGA1807a Accompaniment MP3..... $17.95

LORD JESUS CHRIST, BE PRESENT NOW

Andrew Bruhn

A flowing and expressive setting of the beloved hymn text by Andy Bruhn. This piece features accessibly-crafted vocal writing for SAB choirs, combining stanzas which are mostly two-part mixed with a fuller, final stanza as the choir proclaims:

“All glory to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One!” A thoughtful selection for a general choral introit, Christ the King, Pentecost, or Holy Trinity.

IN THE SHADOW OF YOUR WINGS

Victor C. Johnson

“In the shadow of your wings, we will find our peace.” Based on Psalm 91, Victor C. Johnson's latest anthem provides a comforting message of hope, reminding us of the refuge, peace, and trust found in the shelter of God's care. Lush vocal harmonies and an expansive, flowing piano accompaniment combine to create intimate moments of calm assurance and soaring proclamations of God's faithfulness. Suggested for: Lent, All Saints Day, and Christ the King Sunday

MUSICALS

Looking for an engaging, creative Christmas musical for your children's choir?

Explore these popular choices with unison or two-part voices, narration and flexible roles perfect for choirs large & small.

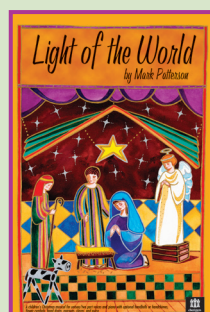

ROOM FOR CHRISTMAS Mark Burrows

It's the week before the church Christmas pageant and the cast of children is determined to bring new life to the Christmas story. But with a bossy angel, wise-cracking shepherds, unruly sheep, and know-it-all wise men, will the pageant be a complete flop? Or will the children discover the true joy and wonder of Christmas by making room for what really matters?

MUSICALS

JOURNEY TO BETHLEHEM

Erik Whitehill

Based on the nativity story in scripture, this oratorio-style musical is easily learned by singers of all ages. As the angels visit Mary, Joseph, and the shepherds to tell the good news of a baby boy, recurring musical themes connect these visits and these characters as they journey to Bethlehem.

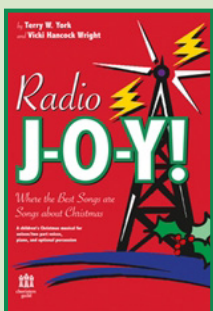

Erik Whitehill hits just the right mix: from a heart-warming ballad to a jazzy title tune, and a delightful Gloria round to bookend arrangements of ADESTE FIDELES. Minimal set and costume needs - use the nativity props and costumes you already have on hand!

The musical is scored for unison or two-part voices with piano, with optional parts for handbells/handchimes and a small chamber orchestra. A great Christmas cantata option for a smaller adult choir.

RADIO J-O-Y

Vicki Hancock Wright & Terry York

This delightful Christmas musical retells the nativity story through songs and stories of those who shared in the glorious event of Christ's birth. Radio studio 'J-O-Y' sets the stage where a local children's choir and their pastor present the Christmas story while being interviewed by disc jockey celebrity, Dee Jay.

Throughout the on-air show, characters from the Christmas story share how their lives were touched by the Savior's birth while entertaining radio reporters intersperse breaking news stories that coincidentally mirror the events of the very first Christmas!

Voiced primarily for unison singing, the well-crafted vocal parts and engaging, creative accompaniments make the musical a joy to teach and to learn. Both humorous and poignant, the dramatic narrative employs numerous roles for girls and boys, including several non-speaking roles.
